

Message plugin

Table of contents

1 Application agnostic plugins.....	2
-------------------------------------	---

1. Application agnostic plugins

These are a number of plugins that are not dependent on any particular application. The application can decide whether to allow these plugins to work with it or not. It is recommended that they be allowed.

Note:

The documentation in `libplugin` explains how an application can allow plugins to work according to their version instruction.